QUARTERLY SCHOLARSHIP

Third Quarter Winner Selected, Fourth Quarter Application Deadline Approaching

Austin Collier of the 10th Security Forces Squadron was the winner of the AFSFA Front Range Chapter's quarterly scholarship award. Applications for the fourth quarter are now open and being accepted until December 31, 2020.

AFSFA CONDUCTS VIRTUAL NATIONAL MEETING

Though an in-person national meeting did not take place for the first time in its 34-year history, AFSFA kept members connected and updated via a worldwide virtual meeting on September 26. Thanks to coordination between Executive Director John Probst and BGen Roy Collins, the meeting was made available to Defenders around the world - with 18 SF units attending. A virtual option is being considered for future meetings for those who cannot travel.

USAFA SENIOR ENLISTED LEADERS ON THE MOVE

IMA to the Security Forces Manager, CMSgt N. Christopher Sinerius is currently filling in as SFM until January 31, and Chief William J. Allen will assume duties in February 2021. Also, SMSgt (sel) John D. Smith assumed the position of Defense Force Sustainment Superintendent, and SMSgt Richard J. Smith arrived in November, and now serves as Defense Force Operations Superintendent.

ANNUAL AWARDS NOMINATIONS DUE

Nomination packages for the 2020 Outstanding Front Range Defenders of the Year are due January 5, 2021. Award format, along with a sample form was previously emailed to unit SFMs.

Countdown to Launch of Front Range Chapter Website

Our new website is expected to be available within days of this newsletter. And, with its launch, information about our chapter and AFSFA news will be more readily accessible to chapter members, Front Range SF units, and sponsors. We will be looking to each of you for creative input toward improvement and expansion.

Merry Christmas!
